

March Meeting Announcement

LET'S TALK BANK LOANS

BANKS FUND BUSINESSES ... BUT MINIMIZE RISK

Jack Keller and Drew Ysserdyke, both commercial lenders, will lead a discussion about bank loans. Yes, banks DO lend money for start-up businesses ... but be aware, banks also LIMIT their risk. You need to understand both sides of that equation. Jack is a commercial lender working at Lake Michigan Credit Union, and Drew Ysserdyke is VP of Customer Relations at Old National Bank (formerly Founders Trust). Serious discussion for serious entrepreneurs searching for the best mix of financing to get their ideas off the ground.

Please Join Us

Date: March 8, 2016

Time: 6:00 p.m.

Place: Western Michigan University
2333 E. Beltline Ave SE
Grand Rapids, MI 49546

6:00 - 6:10 Networking
6:10 - 7:30 Presentations
7:30 - 8:00 Networking

Admission is Free

If you are not a current member, you can attend one GRIN meeting for free to learn more about the network.